A STREET-CLEANING CONUNDAUM.

THE EVENING WORLD'S investigation of New York's dirty streets has brought to the surface this conundrum: What does way between the Park Row and Breadway Commissioner BEATTLE do? Clever reporters, who have tried hard to solve it,

There is no riddle, however, about the dirtiness of the streets. There should be no question about keep ing them cleaner than they are. They so much money spent on them. That better work can be done is shown in those streets that TRE EVENING WORLD has be cleared in a year. called attention to, and which have been

It has always been our sim to sell a thoronest article at a low price; in fact, a succ istness can be established in no other way. For his reason we have gained the confidence of the public, and we are proud of it. Another rule with us is never to carry a stock over from one season to snother. Sooner or later it must be sacrificed, And this explains our present sale of superb Quartered-Oak Bedroom Suits at $45. Else where these beautiful goods would cost the buyer $60. Of course, these are very rare and unusual bargains. We have also noticed when we have a sale of this kind that our friends expect a correponding reduction in our Parlor-Soit Department. We have, therefore, marked our PARLOR SUITS o prices that seem absurdly low to all now the value of such goods.

HENEVER a cooking receipt calls for baking powder, use only the "Royal." Better results will be obtained because it is the purest. It will make the food lighter, sweeter, of finer flavor, more digestible and wholesome. It is always reliable and uniform in its work.

A. FORTIN, Chef, White House, for Presidents Arthur and Cleve-land: "I have tested many baking powders, but for finest food can use none but 'Royal."
